

Helene Boedart has been a visual arts teacher for over twenty years and a Head Teacher for the Talented Theme Magnet Program for the Long Branch Board of Education for twenty years. She is an active leader in organizations such as Art Educators of NJ, Arts Alliance of NJ, and the National Art Education Association. She is the recipient of the Leadership Awards from AENJ and NAEA, Distinguished Service Award from Very Special Arts, NJ and the Governor's Award for Arts in Education. She has been a member of the NJ Department of Education's Arts Framework Development Team and Visual and Performing Arts Frameworks Adaptations for the Special Needs Population. She holds BA and MA degrees from New Jersey City University.